Wednesday Night Grand Final Results

Congratulations must go to the Jemmy Moss Teams.

Three sides represented their venue and succeeded in having all three teams gaining grand final berths.

Jemmy Moss No Names played Jemmy Moss Nuisances in the A Grade grand final.

In the B Grade grand final the Jemmy Moss Dag's played Central One.

In the "A" Grade final the Minor Premiers Jemmy Moss No Names defeat a weakened Jemmy Moss Nuisances side 4-0.

In the teams game Andrew Hore,Kevan Parsons 100,Dayna Hore and Don Caruthers 125,1f14 defeated Daniel Oldfield 100,Gerard Oldfield and Olwyn Oldfield.

In the 1st doubles Don 1f2 and Dayna proved to strong for Olwyn attempting almost the impossible.

The 2nd doubles Andrew 120 Kevan 3f8 defeated Daniel and Gerard for a 3-0 lead.

The 3rd doubles Andrew 100 and Kevan overpowered the luckless Olwyn conceding a 4-0 point score.

The under strength Jemmy Moss Nuisances outfit, knowing they weren't able to claim victory conceded the game to their opponents with a clean sweep.

A nice gesture from a weakened side.

Congratulations to the Jemmy Moss No Names on their Minor Premiership and adding the Premiership to their mantle and to the Jemmy Moss Nuisances For their gutsy effort in the Grand Final.

In the "B" Grade final Central One claimed the Minor Premiership and the Premiership lowering the colours of Jemmy Moss Dag's team 5-2.

The Jemmy Moss Dag's kicked the night off taking out the teams game with Cathy Cemovakis, David Baxter, Kelly and Anton Kneubuhler 113 and 3f66 overpowering Central One's Dave and Leonie Johnson, Paul Harris 100 and Bob Wallis.

In the 1st doubles Central One hit back with Dave 1f14 and Bob levelling the scores defeating Jemmy's Maree and Anton.

The 2nd doubles Paul 121,1f4 and Ken defeated Kelly and David.

The 3rd doubles continued Central One's purple patch and a 3-1 advantage seeing Paul 1f16 and Ken downing Marree and Anton.

The 4th doubles saw the Jemmy Dag's strike back with Kelly and David defeating Dave and Leonie, reducing Central One's lead to 3-2.

The singles started Central One's Dave Johnson 1f36 and 1f8 downing Jemmy's David Baxter 132 and 3f20 in a third and deciding leg taking his team to a 4-2 advantage.

The 2nd singles saw Central One claim victory over the Jemmy outfit with Bob Wallis 3f80,117 and 1f8 defeating Maree Baxter 2f2.

This one also went to a 3rd and deciding leg.

Just proving how close these two teams were, not only in this one but all throughout the comp.

Congratulations Central One, taking out the Minor-Premiership along with being Premiers.

Also to the Jemmy Moss Dag's on an excellent effort during the Winter Competition.

2008 Memorial Trophy The Southern Highlands Darts Memorial Trophy held at the Central Hotel Moss Vale ,Wednesday, November 12th 2008.

This event is held each year to remember the lives of our past friends.

Throughout the years we make friends and acquaintances. Some lasting generations and others not so long.

In all playing darts in a community such as ours opens avenues and doors for everlasting goodtimes.

We all remember goodtimes, for this reason The Memorial Trophy will be held each year to remember such times and friends.

Eighteen competitors contested the 2008 Memorial Trophy.

Doubles teams as follows Don Caruthers/Jean Wallis, Bob Wallis/Amy Truscott, Gerard Oldfield/Leonie Johnson, Ron Hallam/Olwyn Oldfield

Trevor McKeown/Julie Burgess, Dave Johnson/Christine Roche, Jamie Snowden/Daniel Oldfield, Stewart Shields/Eddie Breen, Daniel Wray/Bob Elvey.

After a minutes silence was observed play started and a good time was had by all.

Eventual winners were Stewart Shields and Eddie Breen. Congratulations Stewart and Eddie.

Thankyou to all players who attended in respect of past friends and team mates.

Also thanks to Jean Wallis and the Central Hotel for providing supper and an excellent venue.

Singles Championship 2008 Held at the Central Hotel Tuesday, November 18.

Ten players turned out to battle their skill and powers of concentration.

The was filled with exciting close fought legs.

Eventually there were only two men left standing, with aching shoulders these two men gathered what strength they had left to contest a 1001 play-off.

Pat Molloy proved too strong for Wayne Pull in an epic struggle to take the title. Congratulations to Pat Molloy for his 180 in the play-off.

Thankyou to all who played. SHMDA Doubles Championship will be played at Bargo Hotel Tuesday, November 25 at 7-15pm for 7-30pm start.

SHMDA Men's Classic drawn doubles will be held at the Central Hotel Tuesday, December 2 at 7-15pm for 7-30pm start 2008 Doubles Championship Played at Bargo Hotel Tuesday, November 25.

A very disappointing turn up to this event.

Out of our many members in the winter competition only 4 men left their comfort zones to patronise the Doubles Championships.

Players were Eddie Breen, Pat Molloy, Bob Wallis and Stewart Shields.

After ten legs were played Eddie and Pat convincingly won over the pair of Bob and Stewart.

Congratulations to Eddie and Pat, commiserations to Bob and Stewart.

Thankyou to Bargo Hotel for a great venue and a mouth watering supper.

Also thanks to Jean Wallis for her voluntary scoring of our games.
